THE SUGAR PALM.

It looks as if the Philippines might help to produce cheaper sugar in spite of the tariff.

There grows in the islands two more palms, which thrive upon the poorest soil and yields more sap than the sugar palm.

The sap is collected in a cup, and the juice is squeezed out. It is then boiled and the sugar is left.

The sugar is then refined and is as good as the sugar from the sugar palm.

Q.—Reading in the Gospel of Matthew xi, 20-24, the Savior's words:—"That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah than for thee, which art full of hypocrisy and iniquity."

A.— The Savior's words are a warning to the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, which were full of sin and iniquity. He is saying that it will be more tolerable for them than for the cities of the Pharisees, who were full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

ALL SORTS OF REFORM MOVEMENTS.

It must be admitted that the world has not yet discovered the best method of making better men of so-called criminals. Its primitive methods have seemed to confine men in evil rather than make them good.

The committee of one horrible crime may be more sincerely regretted by the man whose wickedness led him to it than the world can ever know, and the abeyance of the spirit of vengeance and the manifestation of a spirit of love might restore nobility of character and self-respect.

Governor West of Oregon is treating prisoners as if the brotherhood of man was a fact rather than a theory. He has announced that he will not permit the infliction of the death penalty, but the infliction of the death penalty is a fact rather than a theory.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Whatever else is said about Roosevelt, it can never be truly said he is a dark horse.

The Boston Transcript cannot tell the people keep on calling legislators "dark horses."

What Colonel Roosevelt never said was that he never saw a dark horse.

THE MAN WHO TALKS

How think you the first of the year became a season for reform thoughts and resolutions? Perhaps it originated in the practice which made the New Year a day of reckoning, and which regularly confronted the man with his cumulative debts which reminded him of his mistakes and increased his misery.

Perhaps the real reason of what he owed to himself and to others was that he had not been able to do his duty. He had not been able to do his duty. He had not been able to do his duty.

Who knows the origin of the almanac days?

Why should the twelve days inclusive of and following Christmas be accepted as symbolizing the weather of the twelve months of the coming year? Think you it was because seven of them end in a "y" and seven end in an "e"?

Did the almanac day of each month for the following month follow on precedents this Yuletide season? How came Friday to be selected for the divining day? Was it because the day was dedicated to the queen of the earth, the Virgin Mary, the queen of the earth, the Virgin Mary, the queen of the earth, the Virgin Mary?

What constitutes narrowness of mind?

Perhaps it is the training of one's mind to recognizing only as values for the world's opinion. It is the training of one's mind to recognizing only as values for the world's opinion.

ALMA'S YEAR

(Written Specially for the Bulletin.)

"What you do on New Year's day, you will do all the year round."

So said Alma Arlington to herself as she retired on the night of January 1, 1912.

Well, I've had a happy day and enjoyed every minute of it. I've had a happy day and enjoyed every minute of it. I've had a happy day and enjoyed every minute of it.
